the little cassia / doubles!

Valeria Stacchini, Metropolitan City of Bologna

How to valorize natural and cultural heritages in fragile and less known Regional territories?

Should sustainable tourism products be actually capable of attracting visitors by ensuring the lower possible carbon footprint on the environment?

These have been the main leading questions and territorial challenges which the CREATURES project has tried to address with specific reference to the ADRION Region

The Little Cassia
is an ancient road continuing along the more important Via Cassia

piccola cassia

In Bologna, a new cycling and trekking route connecting with the ancient Little Cassia Path has been launched in March 2022
